The Commission has no specific statutory authority to impose attorneys' fees. While the Commission performs functions similar to courts in a quasi-judicial setting, the Commission is not a court of record, nor does it have the powers inherent in such courts. ¶ 16; RCW 80.01.040.

The Commission will not assert an implied power to impose attorneys' fees when case law declines to find that administrative agencies have the authority. ¶ 17; RCW 80.01.040.
